35 Years of Shakespeare in the Park

There is something about Shakespeare. For more than three decades, MCCT has presented the works of the Bard to the Bloomington Community totally free of charge. Over the course of Shakespeare in the Park, we have performed all but a handful of Shakespeare plays, from comedies to tragedies to histories. Hundreds of local performers have been a part of these shows, both on stage and in the background. We've launched careers of actors and technicians, helped people understand the poetry and prose that makes Shakespeare both famous and infamous, and celebrate the very best of the Bloomington community.

MCCT has been, and continues to be, an all-volunteer organization where we encourage anyone who has ever thought "I wonder if I can do that" to give performance a try. We rely on generous donors, grants, and good old fashioned hard work to bring shows to our community, and to bring new actors, writers, directors, and crew to the stage.

Thank you for celebrating 35 years of Shakespeare in the Park with us! Enjoy the show.

Meet the Cast & Crew

Scott Anderson
Doctor Pinch

Scott was in Richard II and Measure For Measure in college in the 1970s. That reinforced a love of Shakespeare that started in high school with A Midsummer Night's Dream and The Tempest. My favorite tragedy for a long time was Othello. In college that became King Lear.

Zilia Balkansky-Sellés
Amelia, the Abbess

Selected roles, with MCCT: Cecily Neville, Duchess of York (Richard III), Katherine (Henry VIII), Don Pedro (Much Ado About Nothing); Feste (Twelfth Night); Miss Prism (The Importance of Being Earnest in a Pandemic); with Cardinal Stage, Grandma Georgina (Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory). Film roles: Human (The Cats that Can, by Robin Lea Pyle); Claudia Böhm (Laid Bare, BFA senior thesis film, by Morgen D. Ludwig). Zilia's poetry has been published in Trigger Warnings, Stormwash, and in Comparative Woman. She participates in spoken word events with the Writers Guild at Bloomington. Zilia has a Master's in Information Science from the University of Michigan and a Ph.D. (2018) in Folklore Studies from Indiana University. She serves as an Academic Advisor for the Hutton Honors College at Indiana University. Zilia has served on the MCCT board since 2023. In summer 2022, Zilia climbed and summited Mount Kilimanjaro.

Kelsey Beal
Rehearsal Stage Manager

Kelsey (she/her) is excited to return to backstage work after a five-year hiatus! She previously appeared in MCCT's audio production of Alice in Vaudeville and is thrilled to return to in-person theatre. She would like to thank Kenny and MCCT for putting on this show and Moccasin the Cat for putting up with late dinner times. She hopes you enjoy the show!

Hannah Bowman
Props Master

Hannah (she/her) is originally from Indianapolis, IN but came to Bloomington in 2018 to start her career. She currently works at Catalent Biologics as a Principal Scientist in Manufacturing Sciences and Technology - Drug Substance. Hannah has a PhD in Chemistry from the University of Wisconsin and a BS in Chemistry from Purdue where she also minored in lighting design. Her theatre experience from Cathedral High School, Summer Stock Stage, Purdue University, and now MCCT spans most aspects of working backstage. Previous MCCT credits: Halloween Spooktacular (SM); The Mousetrap (TD); One Act Showcase: When Dreams Become Reality (TD); Love Lost and Love Found (SM); Vanya, Sonia, Masha, and Spike (TD/Production SM).

Fletcher Coley
Angelo

Fletcher (he/him) has done many things in his life, but he's never done Shakespeare in the Park! He just finished Freshman year at Bloomington High School South (finally), and offers this advice to anyone who hasn't been to high school: don't go. In his free time, Fletcher enjoys drawing, acting, taking naps, and annoying people. He'd like to thank his friends Benadryl, Cooker, and Embryo for their support (even though one of them didn't come to his birthday party). He'd also like to thank Neutrogena sunscreen, because he's ginger, and wouldn't survive five minutes in the sun without an inch-thick layer of it covering his entire body.

B. Stryker DeLong
Costumer

Beckie (she/her) has designed costumes for stage, screen, and events throughout the country. Her first Shakespeare in the Park was in 2012 and she is happy to be continuing the tradition this year. When not spending time with MCCT, Beckie can be found at her day job at Bloomington Stitchery, or dancing with Different Drummer Belly Dancers and Caravanserier Dancers. She has judged cos-play costume contests at Gen-Con in Indianapolis, Comic Con in Columbus, and Bloomington Toy Con. For MCCT, Beckie has appeared as Felicity in Farndale, Mickey in The Odd Couple, and Mrs. Boyle in The Mousetrap. Love, thanks, and a tip of the hat to John and her community of misfits – they know who they are!

Grace Geng
Sound

Grace is a retired engineer, and has found her new passion in Theatre and Filmmaking. She has taken some acting and Improv classes at the Second City in Chicago, and Constellation in Bloomington. Grace made her MCCT debut in Richard III and directed her first show in last fall's One Act Showcase, When Dreams Become Reality.

Kenny Hertling
Dromius of Ephesus

Kenny (he/him) is happy to be back working with MCCT on another fun show here for Shakespeare in the Park. Kenny is a story teller who has worked as an actor, fight director, and intimacy director, along with many technical roles. Shakespeare's work is so much fun to be a part of when you get to see the hijinks of lost relationships and word play. Hope you folks enjoy the show!
